Methodist.—Rev. S. P. H. Elwell, second Sabbath in each month at 10 o'clock A. M. Rev. Olin L. Durant, 3d Sabbath at 11 A. M. Rev. J. G. Graham, 4th Sabbath at 3 P. M. Presbyterian.—Rev. Hugh McLees, at the Methodist Church, on 4th Sabbath at 11 o'clock A. M. Baptist.—Second Church, Rev. W. B. Singleton Pastor, 1st Sabbath and Saturday before in each month at 11 o'clock A. M.

The weather is favorable for farm work.

Rev. S. P. H. Elwell will preach at this place next Sunday night.

Master Guy McFall honored our sanctum by a call on last Monday.

Several of our citizens have gone to the Compens Centennial.

We assure a subscriber at Mexia, Texas, that his paper is mailed regularly at this office.

Wheat is coming out rapidly and if no disaster befalls it, a good crop will be made.

Mr. J. C. Griffin has 30 acres of cotton inside the corporate limits of Pickens which looks very promising at this time.

Work on the new store house on the corner of Main and Ann streets is progressing finely. It will be, when completed, quite an improvement to our town.

Mrs. Alexander, mother of Mr. P. McD. Alexander of this place, was thrown out of and run over by a buggy on last Sunday. She was considerably bruised, but we are glad to learn was not seriously hurt.

Shriner's Indian Vermifuge is strictly a vegetable compound, formulated particularly for destroying and expelling worms. Try it.

John Gravelly, who lives on the head waters of Eastatoe and Oolenoy Creeks in the mountains of this County, is over 95 years old, and does corn every summer. With the exception of pains, his health is good. He is a native of Virginia.

Rev. S. P. H. Elwell, according to previous announcement, preached an excellent sermon at this place on last Sunday on the subject of temperance, from the text, "But they said, we will drink no wine," (35th chapter, first clause of 6th verse Jeremiah.) The evils of intemperance in all its hideous and degrading forms, was presented in a logical and eloquent style, while the arguments used in favor of the use of wines and liquors, were met and refuted by scriptural evidence. Mr. Elwell, from first to last, handled his subject in a masterly way, and the friends of temperance who heard him were very much pleased with his sermon.

Married—at the residence of the bride's mother in this place, on the 5th inst., by the Rev. Hugh McLees, Mr. H. L. Horton of Williamston and Miss Josie Boggs.

The marriage ceremony was performed in the parlor of Mrs. Boggs in the presence of the near relatives and a few of the personal friends of the family, in the solemn and impressive forms of the Presbyterian church. After the ceremony and congratulations, the company was conducted to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served amid the joyous happiness of such occasions. Immediately after dinner the happy young couple in the company of a few relatives and friends, left for the home of the bridegroom where a splendid reception was accorded them. Thus has been plucked from the society of Pickens one of its brightest and most lovely flowers, and carried away to adorn, beautify and make happy the home of its fortunate possessor. May a long, happy, prosperous life be the lot of our young friends.

NOTICE TO MINISTERS AND DEACONS. There will be a ministers and deacons meeting at Mountain Grove church five miles north of Pickens Court House embracing the fifth Sunday in May, commencing at 10 o'clock on Saturday before. All ministers and deacons are invited to attend. The programme for the meeting is: 1. The Introductory and Organization, 2. How to get and maintain a Gospel Discipline, by Rev. T. W. Tolleason, 3. Duties and responsibilities of Deacons, by C. P. Barret, 4. Ministerial Courtesy, How Ministers should treat each other, by Rev. J. T. Lewis, 5. Duties of Churches to their Pastors, by Rev. J. T. Bardeau, 6. Duties of Sunday School Superintendents and Teachers, by Rev. J. C. Parrott, 7. Ministerial Qualification, by Rev. D. C. Freeman.

T. W. TOLLEASON, Chm'n. of the Com. of Arrangements.

Pumpkintown Items.

Mrs. Miram Roper, aged ninety years, died suddenly at her residence in the upper portion of Greenville county on the 5th inst. She went to the field about 10 o'clock in the morning to drop corn, was taken sick, carried to the house and died about 6 o'clock P. M. the same day.

Messrs. Hester, Hendricks & Co. are putting up a steam saw and grist mill and cotton gin at Oolenoy church. Mr. Wm. Hudson, of Greenville, has purchased a tract of 1,000 acres of land and will erect a saw and grist mill, wool cards and cotton gin at Mullen's Ford. It is his intention to divide his lands into suitable lots, erect nice cottages on each and establish a colony of immigrants in that section.

Mr. John Goodwin contemplates erecting a Clement Attachment Cotton Factory and saw mill on the Greenville side of Saluda river.

A new mail route has been established from Sunny Dale in this County to Hart's store in Greenville County. The mail is to be carried once a week. These improvements exhibit a spirit of progress and prosperity never before known in this section. Now with a change of the public road from the Oolenoy bridge to the top of the hill near the church, and with the stock law, Pumpkintown township will soon be abreast of any other township in the County in the line of material development and solid wealth.

The floods in the West are still rising. Thousands of people have been driven from their homes and many lives lost. The loss by the rising of the Missouri between Sioux City and Bismarck is estimated at $25,000,000.

The Republicans of California will gerrymander that State, and by this they hope to get five of the six members of the U. S. House.

When the irresistible Garfield comes in contact with the invincible Conkling—what then?

We would only ask you to try a sample box of the Kaukauna Indian Worm Pellets to assure you that a long felt want has been supplied—that a worm specific has been discovered that is pleasant as well as effectual. Price, 10 and 25 cents per box. For sale by Dr. J. W. Quillian, Enley.

Just received a large lot of Clothing, at H. C. SHIRLEY'S, Central, S. C.
